

CODE OF CONDUCT

Midland Curling Club reflects a safe and respectful sporting facility which supports excellence in curling.

I will adhere to the stated policies and by-laws of the Club and the standards and guidelines laid down by provincial and national governing bodies (as required).

I will treat others as I would like to be treated while understanding that all individuals are unique.

I will play our sport with a sensitive regard for the effects of my behaviour on others and express appreciation and gratitude appropriately. I will promote the positive aspects of the sport. (e.g. fair play) and I will encourage and guide participants to accept responsibility for their own performance and behaviour.

I will treat others fairly and with dignity by being non judgmental towards others and behave in a manner that is free from bias, false assumptions and stereotypes . I will support a safe, positive, healthy and respectful environment which is free of violence and all forms of harassment, bullying and discrimination.

I will accept responsibility for my own actions and decisions and I will listen actively and communicate (verbally and non verbally) in a courteous, respectful and professional manner.

I will embrace change and foster support for the Midland Curling Club's ongoing growth and evolution.

I will be a proactive team member and take initiative while considering the needs of others.

I have fully read and understand the above code of conduct and will ensure that my conduct and practice reflects the above points.
